My dear parishioners of St. Patrick's,

We have tried to provide within these pages a basic representation of our parish community under the patronage of our Glorious St. Patrick. From its humble beginning as a parish providing for the Irish Catholics in the mid 19th Century, St. Patrick's has, through the years, stood out with its lamp shining brightly, preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ, in downtown Columbus. Much in downtown Columbus has changed in the past 150+ years, but St. Patrick's continues to flourish.

St. Patrick's has a relatively young congregation with many active parishioners and numerous opportunities to become involved. We are blessed with a rich Catholic tradition steeped in 800 years of Dominican history. It is my hope that this booklet will help you better familiarize yourself with our parish: its schedule of Sacramental celebrations and devotions, its pastoral staff, its rich history and beautiful church, and finally its opportunities to contribute your treasure, time and talent to your parish.

The Dominican friars of the Province of St. Joseph are very blessed to serve you, and it is our hope that we will continue to do so for many years to come. The Dominican friars are here to serve your spiritual needs. Please know that you may call on your pastor at anytime.

May God bless St. Patrick Church through the intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary, St. Joseph, Bl. Margaret of Castello, and of course, our Patron, St. Patrick.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Michael Mary Dosch, O.P.

Rev. Michael Mary Dosch, O.P.

The Celebration of the Sacraments

Celebration of the Holy Eucharist (Mass) – Please see a complete listing of Mass times on page 6.

Baptisms – Parishioners may arrange for baptisms here at St. Patrick by contacting the Parish Secretary. Baptisms are usually celebrated on Sunday afternoons following the 12 noon Mass. All first time parents must attend a Baptism class prior to the baptism of their first child. Classes are typically scheduled on the 3rd Sunday of the month. Pre-registration is necessary.

First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion – Children in the 2nd Grade are prepared for First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion through the CCD Program. Children from parochial schools may join us in the celebration of First Reconciliation and Holy Communion, with the permission of their pastor.

Reconciliation (Confession) – St. Patrick’s generously offers the celebration of Reconciliation every day. Please see the Confession schedule on page 6.

Holy Communion to the Sick – Holy Communion may be brought to the homebound and hospitalized by both priests and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. Please call parish secretary to make arrangements.

Confirmation – Children in the 6th Grade are prepared for Confirmation through the CCD Program. Children from parochial schools may join us in the celebration of Confirmation, with the permission of their pastor.

Marriage – Marriages may only be scheduled at St. Patrick’s by parishioners who have been registered and active for at least six months. Marriage preparations begin no later than six months prior to a wedding. All arrangements for marriage must be arranged by the pastor. Specific requirements for marriage preparation and the celebration of marriage are available from the parish secretary.

Anointing of the Sick, Holy Communion, Viaticum and Commendation of the Dying – Priests are available to administer the Sacrament of the Sick, bring Holy Communion, and celebrate the Commendation of the Dying to the homebound, hospitalized, and the dying, upon request. Please call the parish secretary to make an appointment. For emergency needs, please call 614.224.9522, prompt “8” for the “Priest on Duty”.

Mass Requests – Mass intentions may be scheduled for both the living and deceased. Requested Mass offerings are $10 and help support the Dominican community. Please contact the parish secretary to request a Mass.

- Mass requests are celebrated here in St. Patrick Church.
- Dominican Friars fulfill Mass requests in their rectory chapel and at Mohun Hall Health Care Facility.
- Mass requests are also sent to the Dominican House of Studies, Pontifical College Josephinum, and our missions in the Solomon Islands and East Africa.
- Perpetual Enrollments for both the living and deceased are also available through the Dominican Friars Guild. Contact the parish office for more information.
- Gregorian Series of Masses, introduced by Pope St. Gregory the Great, is a traditional offering for deceased family and friends. It consists of 30 Masses offered on 30 consecutive days. These Masses are primarily celebrated at the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, DC. Contact the parish office for more information.

Membership in the Parish

St. Patrick Parish welcomes as parish members anyone who intends to participate fully in the sacramental, pastoral, and communal life of the parish. You may register as a member anytime by stopping at the Parish Office and completing an enrollment form. You may also request registration materials by putting your name and address on a Welcome Envelope located in the church pews and checking the appropriate box; the parish secretary will mail you a parish registration form and add you to the monthly mailing of offertory envelopes. Your parish membership is not complete until the registration form is filled out and returned to the parish office. To be considered an active member of the parish you must be registered, attend Sunday Mass weekly, and contribute to the financial support of the parish through the regular use of the weekly offertory envelopes.

St. Patrick Church and Parish Center

St. Patrick Church is located on the corners of Naghten Street, Grant Avenue, and Mount Vernon Avenue. The church, rectory and new parish center are all built of an exterior red brick with sandstone ornamentation. St. Patrick Church was completely renovated from floor to ceiling in anticipation of its Sesquicentennial Celebration in 2003. The interior of the church contains a large vaulted ceiling in a simple Romanesque architectural style.

The vestibule of the church contains shrines to St. Therese of Lisieux and the Infant of Prague, the usher's room, and the entrance stairway to the choir loft. Just above the main entrance of the church's interior is a cross-stitch tapestry of St. Patrick, which was brought to Columbus by Irish immigrants in the 19th century. To the left of this tapestry is a reliquary that holds the major relics of Bl. Margaret's heart, which is venerated on Wednesday, a gold reliquary of numerous Dominican Saints, a relic of our Patron St. Patrick, and relics of St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Gianna Molla, and Blessed Pier Giorgio. Throughout the church, there are candles available for invocation of the saints and prayer.

To the left of the reliquary is the Shrine of Bl. Margaret of Castello that was established here in 1935. The statue is carved from a solid piece of wood and depicts Margaret's handicaps, namely that she was blind and lame, walking with the support of a cane. The tapestry on the right hand wall depicts the life of our Little Margaret. The cross is made from the church timbers burned in the 1935 fire, and has been named the Cross of Sorrow. The banister newel post on the left hand wall of the shrine is from the stairway of the old St. Patrick School that was razed to make room for the new parish center, and serves to hold a relic of Bl. Margaret for personal veneration.

The beautiful wood floor is of red oak interspersed with occasional maple boards and surrounded by a discreet border of walnut. The inlaid shield of the Dominican Order of maple and walnut is a prominent feature adorning the space in front of the altar. The solid oak pews are carved with shamrocks.

Handicap accessible confessionals on the north and south sides of the church match the wainscoting along the north, south, and west walls. Stations of the Cross encircle the body of the church.

Framed portraits of the saints look down upon the congregation. Beginning with the northeast corner and continuing to the southeast corner are St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Antoninus, St. Agnes of Montepulciano, St. Vincent Ferrer, Bl. Pier Giorgio Frassati, St. Gianna Molla, St. Hyacinth, St. Catherine de Ricci, Pope St. Pius V, St. Rose of Lima and Our Holy Father Dominic. The large framed painting in the center of the ceiling shows in the top panel the Coronation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and in the bottom panel, the Apostles on earth, peering into the empty tomb that has miraculously sprouted fresh flowers. The painting over the Bl. Mother shrine depicts Our Lady giving the Holy Rosary to St. Dominic in the presence of the Christ Child. The painting over St. Joseph shrine depicts Saints Joachim and Ann presenting their daughter, Mary, to God in the temple. Over the High Altar is the depiction of the crucifixion of Our Blessed Savior, with the Blessed Mother, St. Mary Magdalene, and St. John.

The High Altar contains the tabernacle and was a gift of Bishop Hartley. (If you look closely, you will find an extra hand at the supper table. By carefully matching arms, hands and bodies, it is apparent that the artist simply added an extra hand to make it "look right", even though the hand does not belong to anyone at the table.) The Altar of Sacrifice was installed in 2003 and contains a beautiful reliquary of mostly Dominican saints. The wrought iron pulpit was installed in 1937 and contains the crests of the Diocese of Columbus, the Dominican Order, and the Dominican Province of St. Joseph.

The stained glass windows beginning with the northeast corner and continuing to the southeast corner depict the Last Supper of Jesus and the Apostles, The Annunciation, Saint Margaret Mary Alcoque, The Wedding Feast at Cana, St. Patrick, The Dominican Shield, Saints Vincent de Paul and Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Mary Magdalene, The Death of St. Joseph, The Resurrection, and the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple.

The Shrine of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, to the left of the main altar, also holds smaller statues of St. Mary Magdalene, patroness of penitents and protectress of the Dominican Order, and St. Dominic. The Shrine of St. Joseph and the Child Jesus to the right of the main altar holds smaller statues of St. Patrick and St. Michael the Archangel.

Separating the sanctuary from the main body of the church is a beautiful altar rail that is still in use today. To the left of the main sanctuary is the Priest Sacristy, and to the right is the Altar Boy Sacristy. The doors to these sacristies have Tiffany stained glass of angels adoring before the Blessed Sacrament. Throughout the church, you will also notice that the shrine and communion rail kneeling pads are handmade cross-stitch tapestry. This beautiful and intricate artwork was done by members of the Women's Club.

The bell tower is located above the Shrine of Bl. Margaret. There are three automated bells that were dedicated on the 8th of August 2003. They are named S.P.N. Dominicus – Our Holy Father Dominic (1,100 lbs), Mater Ecclesia – Mother of the Church (690 lbs.), and S. P. Franciscus – Holy Father Francis (455 lbs.). The bells ring the Angelus three times a day, five minutes before each weekend Mass, and other occasions as well.

In the space that joins our church to the new parish center, a baptistery full of light and sacred space welcomes the newest members of the church and reminds those already baptized of their new life in Christ. The baptismal font, a gift to the parish from the Dominican Friars, is carved from Alabama limestone and weighs 2.5 tons. It is modeled after a 12th Century baptismal font at the church where St. Dominic served as an apprentice to his uncle who was a parish priest. The Baptismal gallery or atrium also houses shrines to our Lady, the Sacred Heart, and St. Patrick. The circular window carries the Greek monogram for Jesus Christ. Down the courtyard corridor is a separate alcove shrine to St. Joseph. The newly constructed parish center houses parish offices, offices for pastoral staff, a conference room, parish library, two large banquet halls, lavatories, classrooms, and meeting rooms.

The Dominican Community

The Dominicans, who have served St. Patrick for more than 130 years, are from the Eastern Province of St. Joseph. The Order of Preachers (O.P.) – the official name of the Dominicans – was founded by St. Dominic in 1216. The first Catholic Church in Ohio was founded in Somerset in 1818 by Fr. Edward Dominic Fenwick, O.P. He later became the first bishop of Cincinnati in 1821. The community includes Dominican friars who serve the parish, as well as those who serve at St. Mary of the Springs Dominican Motherhouse, Ohio Dominican University, and other ministries in the city. From time to time, we also have friars in residence pursuing academic study. St. Patrick Rectory is the private residence of the Dominican friars. All official parish activities, meetings, and office work take place in the Parish Center. The Dominican life is centered on the chanting of the Divine Office three times each day and their life as brothers of St. Dominic.

Religious Education

In keeping with our deep-rooted Dominican tradition, intellectual formation is key to Catholic Life. Following the sound doctrine of St. Thomas Aquinas, we believe that religious education begins early and continues all throughout life.

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) – For all children, K-12, who may not receive religious education in schools, and for children whose parents choose CCD as an additional program to parochial schools. CCD meets on Sunday morning from 10:15-11:30 a.m. The CCD Program also offers The Rites of Christian Initiation for Children (RCIC) for children who have missed sacramental preparation, as well as classes for children with special needs.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd - An approach to the religious formation of children rooted in the Bible, the liturgy of the church, and the educational principles of Maria Montessori. This program is designed to engage children, 3-5 years of age, in a deeper understanding and appreciation of the liturgy, the parables, and the life of Jesus. (New in 2009)

Blessed Margaret's Children - Founded on the premise that God's special children receive ongoing catechesis insofar as they are capable (including the reception of the Sacraments of the Church), Bl. Margaret's Children strives to support the catechesis of each special needs child. The child's individual needs are assessed and an appropriate lesson plan is prepared. Each child is accompanied by an aide during class time. (New in 2009)

Rites of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) – The RCIA program is specifically geared towards adults wanting to be baptized in the Catholic Faith, converts to Catholicism, and Catholics needing specific sacraments. RCIA classes meet from Sept-April of each year on Wednesday evenings. Please contact the parish secretary for more information. Please note that children coming into the church are educated and prepared for the sacraments through our CCD program.

Youth Ministry

Youth Ministry Programs at St. Patrick Church are open to all parish youth. Those from other parishes are welcome, but are first encouraged to explore the youth ministry programs in their own parish. Please contact the Mr. Patrick Reis for more information.

CARITAS is our Jr. High School program for youth in grades 6-8. CARITAS is Latin for Charity. The group meets once a month for a regular meeting and once a month for a social event. CARITAS focuses on fostering the prayer and sacramental lives of our students, all the while incorporating them into a positive loving Catholic environment.

VERITAS is our High School program for youth in grades 9-12. VERITAS is Latin for Truth. The goal and direction of our youth ministry program is "To Seek and Defend the Truth." The youth group meets most Tuesday evenings from 7-9 p.m. VERITAS also has monthly service and social events. Retreat opportunities occur on a regular basis. VERITAS aims to foster the prayer and sacramental lives of our high schoolers, equip them with the tools to defend their faith, develop them in strong manly and womanly character, and provide them with a strong Catholic community.

YOUTH CORE TEAM members are young adults who are faithful to the Church's Teaching who help lead youth ministry events. Core Team members lead games and activities, facilitate small group discussions, give talks, and serve on youth retreats and outings.

Post High School and College Young Adult Ministry and Fellowship

COMMUNION and LIBERATION - The Catholic Movement of Communion and Liberation was created in Milan, Italy in 1954. Its founder Luigi Giussani was a priest that wanted to increase the Christian presence with younger students. He did this by quitting his job as a professor of theology and began teaching at a high school. There a movement began called the 'Student Youth' but evolved into 'Communion and Liberation' in 1969. Today, it's present in 70 countries with 200,000 members, all working toward their purpose of 'education to Christian maturity'. They carry a Christian message in their approach toward art, culture and music. They also work toward promoting charitable activities. [CL meets at St. Patrick's on Tuesday evenings.] Contact cbuscl@gmail.com.

FRASSATI SOCIETY – The Columbus Frassati Society follows in the footsteps of Bl. Pier Giorgio Frassati, seeking to bring the whole person to Christ through adoration, study, community, charitable activity, and love of the outdoors. Young adults ages 21-34 in the Columbus area are welcome to join. For details, contact columbusfrassatisociety@gmail.com or visit <http://columbusfrassatisociety.com/>

VOLUNTEERING IN THE PARISH

ADULTS 18 YEARS OF AGE AND OLDER MUST COMPLY WITH DIOCESAN VOLUNTEER REQUIREMENTS: All employees and volunteers are required by the diocese of Columbus to attend the Protecting God's Children training program and to submit to a Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Background Check. A signed Parish Code of Conduct and other parish specific documents must be on file, as well.

We encourage all adults to complete the volunteer requirements in order that they will be certified to volunteer for any event that may interest them, but most especially parents of children who are involved in our Youth Ministry programs. Please contact the parish secretary for more information.

Bl. Margaret of Castello Guild and Shrine

There has been a special devotion to Bl. Margaret of Castello at St. Patrick Church since the 1930s. A shrine to Bl. Margaret was established in the Church in the late 1950s, with an expansion of the Shrine as a separate chapel in the renovations of the 1970s. In anticipation of St. Patrick's Sesquicentennial 2003-2004, the Shrine was once again renovated. The beautiful stained glass window just above her head that had been previously boarded over was exposed. The tapestry of her life was reconditioned, and in the center of the tapestry was placed a wonderful charred cross made from ceiling beams from the fire of 1935. In addition, the newel post from a banister taken from the St. Patrick School was reconditioned to contain a relic of Bl. Margaret for private veneration.

The Blessed Margaret Guild was established for a two purposes: First to promote the canonization of Bl. Margaret; and second to raise money for various programs to benefit "The Unwanted," especially the poor, underprivileged, the abandoned, and Respect for Life.

Each Wednesday, the Bl. Margaret Novena and Canonization Prayers are prayed at the Masses, and a relic of her heart is venerated. A special Mass is celebrated monthly for the intentions of the Guild members. The Dominican Friars recite the Novena prayers every evening at Vespers for the intentions of the Guild. A Christmas Octave of Masses is celebrated for the intentions of the members of the Blessed Margaret Guild.

There are two general Guild mailings each year: the October Charities Mailing and the Lenten Novena Mailing in anticipation for her feast day, April 13. (The Bl. Margaret novena begins on April 5th or April 13th any given year). All contributions received are exclusively reserved for charities of the Guild and sent to Rome to help promote her eventual canonization. Also on the months when there is a 5th Sunday there is an envelope in the offering packet entitled Little Margaret's Charity. All money placed in this envelope and in the poor boxes located at the back of the church is used for the charity program of the guild.

All are welcome to become members of the Bl. Margaret of Castello Guild by writing to: 280 N. Grant Ave., Columbus, OH, or by calling 614-240-5915.

Brief Life of Blessed Margaret of Castello

Blessed Margaret of Castello was born of a wealthy, noble Italian family near Florence, Italy in 1287. Born blind and lame, her family was ashamed of her and kept her hidden in virtual imprisonment for nine years in a tiny cell attached to a forest church. It was only through the family chaplain that Bl. Margaret came to know God. Seeking a miracle, her parents took her to a Franciscan Shrine. When she was not cured, they abandoned her.

Bl. Margaret's faith and courage inspired others in the community to take pity on her and to help her survive. Eventually she became a member of the Dominican Third Order of Castello, where she lived an exemplary life of prayer, penance, and charity. Despite her difficulties, Margaret was serene, cheerful and courageous. She never became bitter, never complained, never reproached others or lost heart.

Discouragement was a word she did not know. She found strength in prayer, in daily Mass, in Holy Communion and sought help from Jesus, Mary, Joseph and St. Dominic.

Margaret was courageous because she looked at suffering with the eyes of faith. She did not know why God permitted her to have so many afflictions. She did know that He was an infinitely loving and kind Father, who never permitted one single misfortune without good reason, who always turned evil into good for His children. She wondered why people pitied her. Was it not a privilege to suffer with Christ? Suffering for her was a way to heaven.

Pain made Margaret sympathetic and understanding toward others. She visited prisoners, helped the sick and comforted the dying. Since her death, at age thirty-three, she has kept on helping those who pray to her. Many cures have been attributed to her intercession.

Margaret of Castello was declared Blessed by the Catholic Church on Oct. 19, 1609. Bl. Margaret is an inspiration to those who are discouraged and tempted to self-pity. Her intercession is most powerful to those who suffer from eye and muscular diseases and has become an inspiration for the Pro-Life Movement. She is help for those who are unwanted and abandoned.

Her incorrupt body lies under the main altar in St. Dominic Church, Castello, Italy. Many visit her shrine to venerate her body and pray for her intercession.

Stewardship of Time, Treasure, and Talent

Regular Collections – St. Patrick’s depends completely on your financial support. As a registered parishioner, you will receive a monthly packet of offering envelopes. The weekly offering is used to pay the employees of the parish and to provide for programs, supplies, maintenance, utilities, and the general upkeep of the complex. Your offerings are also used to house and employ the Dominican friars who serve the parish. Prayerful, generous, and thoughtful consideration is asked of you concerning your weekly offering to St. Patrick’s. There are occasional 2nd Collections mandated by the diocese as well.

Capital Investment – Each month there is an envelope in your packet entitled Capital Investment. The Capital Investment is used to pay down our existing diocesan loan on the building of the Parish Center and restoration of the Church. Each registered family of St. Patrick’s is asked to consider making a pledge of $50 to this envelope on a monthly basis until the debt is eliminated.

Time and Talent – Parishioners are also asked to participate in the community life of St. Patrick’s. On the following pages is a list of programs and activities of the parish. Please see the bulletin, too, for programs and events being offered in the parish. We ask all parishioners to prayerfully consider joining at least one program or activity and help build up the faith community of St. Patrick’s.

TUITION SUBSIDIES

Please contact St. Patrick’s Business Manager at 614-240-5911 for additional information.

Elementary School Parochial School Subsidies – Parish will provide Catholic elementary school tuition assistance by way of a parish subsidy grant for registered and participating parishioners. This commitment requires active membership and financial support to the parish from the parents who receive this assistance. Active membership is defined by family registration in the parish, recognition by the pastor as a family participating in the sacramental life of the parish, contribution of time and talent to the ministries of the parish, and the regular contribution of an appropriate portion of their annual income to the financial support of the parish. Parents must reapply for subsidies each year.

High School Parochial School Subsidies – St. Patrick’s pays a mandatory subsidy set by the diocese for each registered parish child enrolled in a diocesan High School.

Parish Organizations

Your help is needed throughout the year with the various projects, activities and committees that serve the Parish. Please refer to the parish bulletin for times and dates of ministry meetings. To contact any of the groups listed, please call the parish office for information or see individual contact information contained herein.

All Volunteers must comply with Diocesan Volunteer Requirements.

All employees and volunteers are required by the diocese of Columbus to attend the Protecting God's Children training program and to submit to a Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI) Background Check. A signed Parish Code of Conduct and other parish specific documents must be on file, as well.

We encourage all adults to complete the volunteer requirements in order that they will be certified to volunteer for any event that may interest them, but most especially parents of children who are involved in our Youth Ministry programs.
