WINTER AT ST. PATRICK'S AND PREPARING FOR LENT

This time of year is always an “in-between phase” – Christmas is over, and Lent hasn't started yet. The dreary, gray Ohio sky can be disheartening, and there will be yet another Super Bowl this year without the Browns playing in it! But life at our parish has been far from dreary or disheartening, as we have been blessed with many great moments ahead of the coming Lenten season.

Last weekend, we had an exciting Trivia Night. Patrick Hall was packed for this annual event that draws a large crowd of both parishioners and visitors. A special thanks goes out to the Marriage and Family Life Committee for organizing it, to the Columbus Frassati Society for their work in promoting the event (and for having an exciting, competitive table!), and to the Knights of Columbus, who oversaw concessions. Events like this help our parish to connect, and to grow in community.

Besides working Trivia Night, the Knights of Columbus have been busy, with the Chili Cook-off the weekend before Trivia Night and now making preparations for the Lenten Fish Fries. Our Knights of Columbus Council #11207 has seen a growth in new members over the last year, and it is a great opportunity for the men of our parish to grow in faith, fellowship, and service, both within our parish and to the greater community. If any man 18 years and older would like to know more about the Knights and the good works they do, or to be a member of the Knights of Columbus, please visit: <https://www.kofc.org/secure/en/join/join-kofc.html>

While the Christmas season officially ended with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on January 8th, our parish has the custom of following “the long Christmas” celebration, leaving our Christmas crèche up through this past Friday's Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, or Candlemas. Once again this year, we marked Candlemas with our solemn evening Mass, beginning with the Blessing of Candles in Patrick Hall and the Procession to the Church. During the Offertory of the Mass, the faithful brought up their lit processional candle as an offering to the Lord, in a Dominican tradition known as the oblatio candelarum. The burning candle is a reminder of our own baptismal candle, and more so, of our baptismal promises. By offering the burning candle to God, we show through visible signs that our lives are not our own, but are dedicated to the Lord, and that we will do what he asks of us. Though the winter is dark and dreary, the light of Christ, which shines in the blessed candles of Candlemas, as well as within our own hearts, burns brightly, casting out the darkness of error and sin.

And now we find ourselves once again preparing for the season of Lent. With such an early Easter this year (March 31st), Lent springs upon us quickly. While Lent can always seem like a long haul, especially at the beginning, when winter is still present, it is really an opportunity – an opportunity to grow deeper in our faith, and to renew our own commitment to Christ, which began at baptism. Prayer, fasting, and works of mercy, though penitential in nature, are meant to recreate the heart of mankind, so that when Easter comes, all of us may better understand how we have become new creatures in Christ, and how to live this mystery. During this year of the parish phase of the National Eucharistic Revival, we look forward in a special way to our Lenten parish mission from February 19th-21st, with Father Stephen Dominic Hayes, O.P. as our mission preacher. Besides being the prior of the local Dominican community here at St. Patrick's, Father Hayes is one of the fifty National Eucharistic Preachers, commissioned by the bishops of the United States to preach about the Eucharist. While Fr. Hayes has been traveling the country preaching about the Eucharist, this will be his easiest mission – he'll only have to walk about 10 feet to get there! We look forward to hearing his words of wisdom on the most holy sacrament of the altar. Then, on March 1st and 2nd, St. Patrick's will host nearly 24 hours of Eucharistic Adoration as part of the Diocese of Columbus' “40 Days of Adoration.” May this upcoming Lent truly be a Eucharistic Lent!

Also, mark your calendars now for our parish feast day celebration, which will be scheduled a little differently this year. Because St. Patrick's Day falls on the Fifth Sunday of Lent, we won't be able to have our regular Vigil Mass on the night before (due to the liturgical laws of the Church). However, Bishop Fernandes has given us special permission to move up our celebration by one day. So, our parish feast day celebration will be held on Friday, March 15, beginning with a Solemn Mass at 6:30pm, followed by our torch-lit procession and Litany of Irish Saints, and our Irish Tea in Patrick Hall. It will certainly be a wonderful celebration, as usual, just a day earlier!

May God bless you always in these days of preparation for the holy season of Lent!

CONFRATERNITY OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY LOCAL CHARTER INFORMATIONAL MEETING Wednesday, February 7, at 7:00 p.m.

Are you one of the many parishioners who have enrolled in the Confraternity of the Most Holy Rosary over the years? Solemn Enrollment Ceremonies have been held at various times, and many of you may have enrolled online. Just in the last few months, over 110 people have enrolled in the Confraternity during Solemn Enrollment Ceremonies held here on Rosary Sunday and the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception.

While St. Patrick's has been blessed to have the provincial headquarters of the Rosary Confraternity on site for over 20 years, there hasn't been much done to distinguish the parish's local charter of the Confraternity from the provincial headquarters, even though several parishioners belong to the Confraternity.

If you're already a member of the Confraternity, and are interested in how we can form the Rosary Confraternity into a local parish group/organization, please come to an informational meeting on Wednesday, February 7th at 7:00 p.m. in St. Julie Billiard classroom.

Fr. Paul Marich, who is the provincial Promoter of the Rosary, will explain the necessary steps and advantages of making our parish charter of the Rosary Confraternity a more structured organization.

Thank you to our wonderful parish volunteers for all you do!

*If you volunteered in the parish during the past year and were not able to attend the Volunteer Appreciation
Open House, stop by the office to pick up your gift!*

Winter 2024

Welcome to Our Newsletter!

Girl Editor: Elena Perez

Troop OH 0031- Columbus Ohio

Fall Campout – Charlotte Waite: Tenderheart

It all began on Friday with everybody coming to the lodge and setting up cots. Everybody brought snacks so we had a nighttime snack, prayed a decade of the Rosary, and went to bed. On Saturday, we woke up, got ready, and had breakfast. We made sit-upons and went on a hike to see the Explorers. We planted bean seeds, ate lunch, and then we had some play time. Finally, we met up with the PiPas and Explorers and got to make some S'MORES!! Once we got back to the lodge, we colored, listened to a story, and went to bed. Sunday, we woke up, got breakfast, packed up our things, and headed home for Mass!

Veterans Day Parade - Madeline Wolf: Explorer

On November 5th, 2023, our AHG troop marched in the Hilliard Veterans Day Parade. Our troop participates in this parade most years to honor our country. During the parade, we marched two miles! At the end, we got to watch a demonstration of a gun salute. I got to hold the American flag and the AHG banner twice. Marching in the parade was very fun.

Volunteering at Alicia's Closet – Catherine Fagge: Pioneer

On Saturday, January 13, 2024, the American Heritage Girls volunteered at a place called Alicia's Closet. Alicia's Closet is a free store for children in foster care, parents who have kids in foster care, and young adults who have aged out of foster care and are trying to make it on their own. We organized the clothes by size and made sure they were facing the right way on the hangers. We got rid of the ones that were not good quality. Alicia's Closet was grateful for the help to sort donations and organize the Free Store.

PiPa Shooting Sports Event – Elena Perez: Pioneer

On August 12, 2023, the AHG Pioneers and Patriots gathered at the Columbus Muzzle Loading Gun Club in Grove City, Ohio to work on our Shooting Sports badge. We began with receiving an introduction from Laura and Art McCall. Next, we split into two groups: half of us shooting, half of us tomahawk throwing.

During the shooting session, we got to learn how to clean and prepare a gun, techniques for holding different firearms, and we got to practice shooting at various targets. At the tomahawk throwing station, we learned how to hold these small axes and how to throw them. We also got to throw the 'hawks' at wooden targets a few feet away. There was a scoring system, and if you could pop a balloon or slice one of the playing cards that were pinned to the target, you would have a certain amount of points added to your score. There was a similar system at the shooting station, but it had to do with the amount of times you shot and hit the given target.

At the end, the McCalls tallied up everyone's scores, chose the two girls with the most points, and awarded each of them with a medal. By the end of the day, we had learned many new things, practiced them, and had fun. All in all, the PiPa Shooting Sports Event was a great success.

AHG Troop OH 0031 Receives 2023 Bishop's Troop Award!

Congratulations AHG Troop OH 0031 for receiving the 2023 Bishop's Troop Award! On January 27, 2024, the troop was presented the award by Bishop Earl Fernandes at the annual Scouts Day with the Bishop. The Catholic Committee on Scouting for the Diocese of Columbus selected AHG St. Patrick Parish as the Bishop's Troop. This honor is awarded each year to one parish in the Diocese for the accomplishments of the parish's Girl Scouts or American Heritage Girls troop in promoting Catholic Scouting.

Scholarships available. Please contact the parish office, 614-240-5910.
