Day of Prayer for Vocations; Safe Haven Sunday resources

Dear friends,

Today is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, and you will find resources about vocations nearby in this bulletin. We look forward to the ordination to the priesthood of two of our parish men: Rev. Mr. Tyler Carter and Rev. Mr. Michael Haemmerle. They will be ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, May 18, and the next day, Pentecost Sunday, they will each celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Patrick. Soon-to-be Fr. Tyler Carter will celebrate our 12 noon Mass and soon-to-be Fr. Michael Haemmerle will celebrate Mass at 3:00 p.m. Thank you for your support of our men preparing for the priesthood!

Please continue to pray for all of our young people, that they will actively listen to the call of Christ, the Good Shepherd, who will lead them along the path that will help them live their lives to the full, whether that be a path that leads to marriage, to a single life given generously to God and neighbor, to the life of a religious brother or sister, or to the priesthood.

This past weekend was designated Safe Haven Sunday by our Diocese to give focused time and resources to address the harmfulness of pornography and other online threats to marriages, family life and culture. Here are some resources that may be of help:

A highlighted theme this year is human trafficking and other serious attacks on human dignity. On the Diocese's Safe Haven Sunday page, you can find the Vatican's recent document "Dignitas Infinita" on offenses against human dignity as well as information on the work of the U.S. Council of Catholic Bishops against human trafficking and against child abuse:

<https://columbuscatholic.org/safe-haven-sunday> .

Here are some resources also found on the Diocese's Safe Haven Sunday page specifically for those trying to protect their families or recover from a pornography addiction:

You will find QR code links in this weekend's bulletin to these downloadable e-books. These can be downloaded on: <https://www.covenanteyes.com/e-books/> .

Equipped: Smart Catholic Parenting in a Sexualized Culture. This book includes a unique seven-day text-to-opt-in program: The Safe Digital Family Challenge. This Challenge provides practical tips any caring adult can take to create safer digital environments for themselves and our young people.

Confident: Helping Parents Navigate Online Exposure. Creating a safe home environment encourages honest and transparent conversations that discourage secretive behavior. Learn how to have the critical conversations every child needs to be confident in our digital world.

Connected: How Strong Family Relationships Lead to Internet-Safe Kids. We are relational beings, and when we don't connect with real people, we look for that connection somewhere else, often in areas that harm us deeply. People who are exposed to porn early in life often struggle connecting with people on a deep level and continue to seek synthetic relationships, like digital ones, instead. In this book, you'll learn:

- How we were made for connection
- Connecting as spouses
- Connecting with children
- Many more resources

Here are some free e-mail challenges to help individuals or couples recover and heal from pornography through a daily video series. You can register at:

<https://www.covenanteyes.com/e-mail-challenges/> .

Strive. Created in partnership with Matt Fradd, STRIVE is a 21-day porn detox designed specifically for men. STRIVE helps men understand why they go to porn in the first place, why they should break free, and equips them with the tools they need to quit using porn and begin living the life to which God is calling them.

Restored Vows: A Porn Recovery Series for Couples. Brandon and Tonia are a normal couple whose marriage was almost destroyed by pornography. Join them on a candid 14-day journey, where they reveal their darkest moments and share what they did to find healing and hope in a seemingly hopeless situation. Each day you'll receive a brief video highlighting one aspect of their story, supplemental readings to understand the principles and help them apply what you learned to your own marriage, and questions and Scripture reflections to learn more about each other's journeys and draw closer as a couple.

The Novena for Purity. Join Covenant Eyes and the Angelic Warfare Confraternity for nine days of focused prayer with the Novena for Purity, where you'll ask God to strengthen you in various ways as you seek to live a life of purity. During the novena, you'll ask Jesus to:

- Give you strength to resist temptation.
- Purify your senses and relationships.
- Heal your memory and inner wounds.

Begin your novena today and experience God's healing presence.

Here are some print books appropriate for various age groups. You can find links to purchase these books on this page:

Magdala Ministries is a place of honesty, hope, and healing for women of faith struggling with sexual addiction.

Magdala exists as a space where women can find hope, healing, and freedom alongside each other from sexual addiction. The goal is to supply women with support, community, and accountability.

Magdala virtual groups are available to women ages 18 and up all over the globe, and they partner with college campuses and parishes to help facilitate groups in person. Whether it's virtual, in-person, or through our blog and podcast content, they want to offer every woman the chance not just to recover, but to heal.

C.R.A.S.E. TRAINING SATURDAY, APRIL 27 12-3 P.M.

St. Patrick Church and the Columbus Division of Police will offer another important training session to help increase our awareness and preparedness during a potential active shooter scenario (with the hope we never need it.) The more aware we, as a community, are of how to handle these potentially chaotic situations, the more help we can be to each other and the police response team in a crisis.

We encourage all members of ministries, and in our parish community at large, to participate in this training event. (Please, no one under 16 years of age, though.) The training session consists of a seminar and a demonstration/walk-through. Folks of all ages and physicality are welcome. For the benefit of all, we ask that you make room in your schedule to accommodate a training session.

TO RESERVE YOUR SPOT, CONTACT THE PARISH OFFICE 614-240-5910 or office@stpatrickcolumbus.org.

Catholic in Recovery

St. Patrick's Library
Wednesdays from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Catholic in Recovery invites you to join us for our weekly meeting at St. Patrick Church. We meet every Wednesday evening from 7:30-8:30 p.m. and welcome all Catholics who are interested in recovery from addiction and deepening their relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. Our program integrates the 12 steps of recovery with the sacraments of our Catholic Church. If you struggle with alcohol, drugs, food, gambling, pornography, or sex, please join us for a safe place to work through your recovery. We also want to welcome those who have friends and family struggling with addiction issues.

If you have questions, please contact:

on Monday evenings from 8:00-9:00 p.m.*

Dear St. Patrick's Church Members,

Our names are Luke Gjostein and Maria Kachur, and both being parishioners here we are very excited to share that we will be serving at the Apostolate for Family Consecration's "Catholic Familyland" as Service Corps summer missionaries! At Catholic Familyland, over 5,000 people will attend the Holy Family Fests to receive spiritual encouragement and transformation through a weeklong retreat. First and foremost, we would like to ask for spiritual support as we assist the Apostolate in bringing families closer to Jesus, through Mary, in union with St. Joseph. Second, we would like to ask, if possible, for your financial support this summer. As missionaries we are asked to collectively raise at least $2,000. Any support we raise will go to covering the basic costs of hosting a missionary, such as food and lodging. We are grateful for any way you can support this mission! Donations can be made at <https://rootfunding.com/campaigns/luke-gjostein-afc-missionary-campaign-2024>.

You can contact us at marialgk0101@gmail.com for more information or visit afc.org. Thank you for your support and prayers!

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS TO FOCUS ON VOCATIONS

In just three months, tens of thousands of Catholics will gather in Indianapolis for the nation’s first Eucharistic Congress in more than eight decades. While the main focus is clear—to adore Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament—participants will also notice a heavy emphasis on vocations.

Religious communities from across the country will be attending, many underwritten by Serra International, which is organizing a large area in the convention hall that will be teeming with sisters and brothers. The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring an entire section to showcase diocesan priesthood, with a small army of priests on hand to talk with young men.

Also in attendance will be hundreds of seminarians, many of whom will have just completed the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage, an ambitious project that will see thousands marching toward Indiana along different routes totalling 6,500 miles.

The connection between the Eucharist and vocations is clear: Three-quarters of recently ordained priests regularly participated in Eucharistic Adoration before entering seminary. And at Catholic youth events, even those offering sports and high-energy activities, teen participants still rank one “activity” as their favorite: Adoration.

As the Church prepares for this historic event, let’s ask our Eucharistic Lord for an outpouring of vocations!

Archdiocese of Oklahoma City

Above: Last year, the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City led more than a thousand faithful Catholics in a two-mile Eucharistic Procession—one of the longest in the country.

Masthead photo: Fr. Peter Mangum of the Diocese of Shreveport celebrates atop a climbing wall during a vocations summer camp. Beside him is Fr. Kelby Tingle, who attended the diocese’s “Mission Possible” camp as a teen and is about to celebrate a much bigger achievement—his first year of priesthood.

IDEAS FOR ACTION

HOLY FATHER: DO THESE FOUR THINGS

In a papal message for World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis used the term “con-vocation” to explain that a vocation is not an isolated “me-and-God” experience. Instead, young people hear God’s call within a real Church community. He offered four concrete ways to help youth discover their vocations, emphasizing these things should be done together:

1. Co-teach with a catechist
2. Visit a convent or monastery
3. Assist missionaries
4. Spend time with parish priests

Note that none of these involve phones or social media. How can you organize real-life activities for youth in your parish?

SERRA CELEBRATES 100 MONTHS THE GLOBAL ROSARY FOR VOCATIONS

For 100 months, Catholics from around the world have joined a massive video/phone call during which they pray the rosary to intercede for vocations. Created by Tim O’Neill in 2015, the Global Rosary brings together Serra Clubs comprised of lay people dedicated to promoting priesthood and consecrated life. “In its simplicity it becomes quite a feat,” said Tim. “It gives a chance for people worldwide to visit beforehand and after.... The most powerful way we Serrans connect is through prayer.”

THE VOCATION OF MARRIAGE

SOLVING DATING DILEMMAS

The stats on Catholic marriages are alarming: for every ten weddings in 1970, today there are only two. Percentage-wise, that’s a steeper decline than priestly ordinations.

For young Catholics looking for love, the Catholic dating scene is not just frustrating, it’s downright discouraging. That was certainly the experience of Rachel Hoover Canto, whose new book on dating, Pretty Good Catholic, offers counter-cultural advice for how to date well, stay chaste, and find a good Catholic spouse.

After Rachel graduated from college, she watched her friends get married while she suffered through some tough breakups. That got her thinking deeply about the whole Catholic dating situation, which has its own set of quirks and challenges. Trying to be proactive, she started a Catholic singles group, interviewed people from CatholicMatch, and consulted dating experts. The result is Pretty Good Catholic, which serves as a how-to guide for even the most discouraged single man or woman.

Cristina Pineda, an LA-based celebrity matchmaker who also happens to be a faithful Catholic, offered high praise: “I wish I had this book when I was single,” she said,

STORYBOOK ENDING

While writing Pretty Good Catholic, Rachel Canto took her own advice and found the love of her life. She and her new husband live in Nashville.

One Hail Mary

Sometimes it’s the simple things! A traditional practice that’s making a comeback is helping kids pray for their future vocations by saying one Hail Mary each night: “Mother Mary, as you said yes to the angel Gabriel, help me say yes to God’s call. Hail Mary, full of grace...”
