From the Desk of the Pastor

Today marks World Mission Sunday. This is not a liturgical commemoration, but a designation by the Church for the third Sunday of October each year to help us become more aware of the Church's missionary activity. Today's second collection will support the missionary activity of the Church.

When we think about the missions, we often think of missionaries who travel to far-off countries, bringing the Gospel to those who have never heard it. While that is certainly a major aspect of the Church's missionary activity, it is always important to remember that all members of the Church are called to embrace her missionary work. Saint John Paul II (whose feast day will be this Tuesday) tells us: "since they are members of the Church by virtue of their Baptism, all Christians share responsibility for missionary activity" (Redemptoris missio, 77). The word mission comes from the Latin word missio, meaning "sent." Just as Jesus sent the apostles out after His Ascension, He continues to send out His disciples to carry out His work here on earth. This call began at our own Baptism, and we are reminded of it every time we go to Mass – the very word "Mass" is derived from the dismissal of the Mass in Latin: Ite, missa est. At the end of every Mass, we are commissioned to go forth (Ite), being sent (missa) into the world to bring the Gospel of Christ which we have heard. But it can't end with us just hearing it – we should desire that all people will hear this message. Maybe we are the ones whom Jesus is sending so that they will hear it!

World Mission Sunday is an opportunity to renew our support for the missions, and to pray for those who have been sent to places far from home to carry out their mission. But we should also think about those who have been given a mission closer to home: it may be some ministry or outreach to young people, to university students, or to those who are suffering from poverty or addiction. Or it could be accepting some call within our parish. What is the Lord asking of you, and where is He sending you? Today is a good day to think and pray about that question!

God bless you,
Fr. Paul, O.P.

EXPANDING ADORATION AT ST. PATRICK'S

Are you interested in expanding our hours of Eucharistic adoration at St. Patrick's? We've heard from many that interest is high! We're seriously considering adding Eucharistic adoration every Tuesday, beginning after the 11:45 a.m. Mass, concluding at 8:00 p.m., and we are looking for a start date to coincide with the beginning of Advent, the season of waiting and expectation for the Nativity of Our Lord. If you are interested in signing up for a regular committed hour, please contact Steve and Amy Zehala (contact information below). We will be working with a web-based program and app, Ministry Scheduler Pro (MSP), which many of our parish ministries already use. You will be able to sign up for a regular hourly time period, or substitute as needed. For more information or to sign up for a weekly hour of adoration, please contact Amy by text at 330-717-0367, Steve by text at 614-274-5000, or both by email at sjamz830@gmail.com, and let them know if you are interested in coming to adore our Eucharistic Lord!

The Appeal 2024 Supporting Catholic Ministries

I thought I was too busy to join the Knights of Columbus!

October is here and soon we'll be waving goodbye to fall and saying hello to winter. Like me, you might ask, "Where has this year gone?" We are all so busy with work and family obligations, most of us dare not even consider adding another activity to the schedule. Still, if a task is to be accomplished, it is best to ask someone who is already busy. It is in this light, that we are asking men of faith to join the ranks of the Knights of Columbus. Please prayerfully consider joining the Knights! In our times, the Church struggles to survive within a secular world where the sanctity of life is questioned and religious liberty attacked. The Knights of Columbus, under the guidance of Our Blessed Mother, united through the merits of her Most Holy Rosary, stand as a beacon of hope for Catholic families. Join over 2 million men who are dedicated to the promotion of Catholic causes around the nation and the globe.

The Knights of Columbus are a constant presence in our parish. Our activities strive to promote a sense of community and fraternity while raising funds to support Catholic charities. As a member of the Knights, together we perform many Corporal Works of Mercy. Our local Council, with the generous help of St. Patrick's parishioners, has supported numerous charitable causes, including:

- Pregnancy Decision Health Centers
- Bethesda Healing Ministry
- Sisters for Life
- Greater Columbus Right to Life
- Ultrasound machines for PDHC
- St. Gabriel Catholic Radio
- St. Patrick Church
- St. Patrick Families in need
- Dominican Deserving Poor Boys
- Diocesan TV Masses
- Wounded Warrior Program
- VA Hospital Program
- Catholic MP3 players for troops
- Family Rosary Day
- Developmentally Disabled
- Vacation Bible School
- St. Patrick's Giving Tree
- St. Patrick Youth Group
- March for Life Bus trip donations
- Scholarship program (RSVP) to seminarians
- Food and Coat Drives
- Programs to aid families dealing with illness or unexpected death.

In addition, the St. Patrick's Council facilitates many parish events, such as the annual picnic, supporting our Dominican Sisters, Lenten fish fries, spaghetti dinners, pancake breakfasts, All Saints Day party, ice cream socials, book sales, and receptions honoring priests, deacons, and religious.

Each year, the Knights of Columbus provide generous support, not only to our local priests, but also to the Holy Father. The Order sponsors the Midnight Mass broadcast each Christmas from Rome, and many other activities simply too numerous to enumerate.

Why should you join the Knights of Columbus? In doing so, you will strengthen both your spiritual life and the Church itself, as we work together to build a future filled with hope, values, and ideals for our children.

Please consider joining in the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy through the Knights.

Contact Grand Knight Scott Briley at sbriley@apex-title.com or Deputy Grand Knight Robert McGonigle at Robert@RobertMcGonigle.com.

May God bless and keep you and our parish families.
